Therapeutic Foster Care Program

Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch is licensed as a therapeutic foster care placing agency through the state of Montana. Our staff match children up to age 18 with treatment families. These licensed and trained families provide care, structure, support, and focused mental health intervention for youth.

We have close to 30 therapeutic foster care families with homes in Belgrade, Big Timber, Billings, Bozeman, Livingston, and other communities throughout Montana. Please consider helping us grow our program into your community.

Therapeutic Foster Care Services

Yellowstone's skilled staff members provide therapeutic foster care families with the following services:

- Evaluation and assessment
- Individualized treatment plans
- Educational planning
- Training and development
- Monthly therapeutic support groups
- Respite care
- Access to 24-hour on-call crisis intervention
- Stipends to assist in providing care for the children

Get Involved

Those interested in becoming therapeutic foster care parents must engage in the following activities:

- Successfully complete a background check.
- Participate in a series of home visits and interviews.
- Complete 33 hours of training before initial licensure.
- Complete 30 hours of training for annual relicensure.
- Attend monthly meetings, which consist of training and support group activities.
